

Side Panel Air Duct for ATX8xxx Series Cases

StarTech ID: SIDEDUCT2

Designed to mount in our 83xx series of Professional computer cases, the SIDEDUCT2 enables you to provide direct cooling to your high powered CPU.

When combined with an LGA-compliant side panel, this product can assist in creating a system build that meets Intel heat dissipation specifications.

Applications

- Add a side venting duct to StarTech.com ATX83xx series computer cases
- Reduce internal temperature by adding a duct to the side panel to exhaust hot air from CPU cooler directly
- Create more efficient airflow within the computer case by isolating the air flow from the CPU cooler from the case fans

Features

- Lightweight plastic construction
- Extendable length from 7.5cm ~ 11cm
- Designed for use with StarTech.com ATX83xx series computer cases
