

4 Port S-Video and Composite Video Switch with Stereo Audio and Remote

StarTech ID: SVID410IR

This Composite/S-Video Switcher lets you select between up to 4 Composite or S-Video outputs as well as the corresponding audio, for display on a single TV/monitor.

Now, switching between audio-video sources is as pushing a button on the front panel of the video switch, or using the included IR remote control - a convenient solution for selecting between multiple Composite/S-Video sources such as VCRs, camcorders or DVD Players without the hassle of swapping out cables.

Designed and constructed to provide a reliable A/V switching solution, the Composite/S-Video Switch with RCA Audio is backed by StarTech.com's 2-year warranty and free lifetime technical support.

Perfect for multiple devices like VCRs, camcorders, and DVD players as well as game consoles like Xbox®, Playstation 2®, GAMECUBE™, and Dreamcast™.
